Our free MV Mag is simultaneously cutting-edge while encapsulating the best of the esthetics of the golden age of glamorous erotica. There's nothing else quite like this magazine, and that's why the title for this new issue for Mag #28, Outlaws, perfectly fits a publication that doesn't play by the rules.

We open with a beautifully mysterious shoot of the exquisite Tana Lea and Demi Sutra alone with each other amongst a magical background of a living maze composed of greenery. You'll get lost in this shoot and never want to be found.

From the wilds to the bustling city, ashleejuliet takes us to Chinatown for her freeing photoshoot, Unbound. Let her be your guide as she shows you around town while revealing more and more of herself.

"I never considered sexuality as something necessarily private or intimate," explains Jane Lucier for her interview for her photo set Free Run, "it's something that everyone can share and relate to." Her shoot illustrates exactly how liberated she is when it comes to owning her sexuality.

Concrete Blonde stars Lily Rader contrasting her soft feminine mystique against an industrial backdrop of cement and stone. The harsh scenery highlights Lily's sensual but delicate appeal making her photoshoot a sexy and ethereal experience.

Tana Lea + Demi Sutra

1. What is the craziest thing you've ever done for love?

I moved to Vegas with the love of my life after knowing him for just a few months.

2. What's your favorite thing about being an adult performer?

Doing things everyone else is scared to do.

3. What do you like daydreaming about?

Food, weed, dogs, and designing my house–I'm a homebody, so I like to make my home like an all-in-one fortress. I also dream about ways to make my life easier and have more money come in while I sleep. You know… just casually taking over the world.

4. Do you like nature or do you prefer the indoors?

Both. I can easily do anything anywhere, and at any time.

5. Tell us about the some of the best sex you've ever had:

It's when I had crazy sneaky sex. The kind where you have to be quiet and have sex where and when you're not supposed to.

6. What could you spend all day talking about?

My dogs, food, weed, and Nick.

7. What's your go-to comfort food?

Mashed potatoes.

8. On any given day, what can your fans expect you to be doing?

Watching cruddy reality TV, playing with my puppies, or hanging out with my man at the pool and getting a fresh tan.

1. What turns you on the most in a man?

What turns me on most in a man is his dick being impossibly hard around me to the point where he can't stand it.

2. What turns you on the most in a woman?

For a woman, it's her softness and confidence. I also have a thing for bossy little brats. It's terrible.

3. Do you believe in astrology? Why or why not?

I believe in astrology to an extent. I definitely see how it can go overboard and become this new way of separating humans from one another—and that's the part I don't like. I love how it tends to help me through certain times. But I don't like when people think they know me based on my sign… I'm very careful with it.

4. What do you think is the cleverest animal?

My spirit animal is a cat because I am and always will be a cat in every way. Playful, but I will bite you. Still hella cute and fluffy though!

5. What do you feel you do better in bed than anyone?

I don't compare myself to other people, and I don't know what other people do it bed, but I am known for sleeping through alarms, hurricanes, and earthquakes.

6. What's the most beautiful thing in nature?

Trees are the most beautiful thing in nature. Succulents are a close second! I truly love how resilient and beautiful these things are. I find them deeply metaphorical while being majestic and humble. It's a lot all at once.

7. What's the best gift anyone has ever given you?

The best gift I have been given is my art piece of a female torso carved from wood. It was given to me by my best friend and long-time lover, Evelin Stone. I always think of her when I see it, and everyone who comes to my house loves it too! There is no conversation starter like a hand-carved upside-down pussy.

8. In your opinion, what needs to change in the adult industry?

The changes I would like to see in the adult industry. Wow. This is a big one for me. To summarize, my main issue is female safety. I want more women at the forefront of this industry, and while I see these changes happening, it's not being taken as seriously as it needs to be. Also, the amount of accepted and normalized racism is disgusting. I had to actually leave mainstream just a month after trying it out years ago, and I'm back now with stronger skin and a chip on my shoulder. I will not stop making changes, and I will not stop calling companies and individuals out on their bullshit. I have to be who I am. We need to stand up together and put a stop to this. We need to protect women. We need to protect black women specifically. I am going to stop there for now but watch me work.

1. What's your favorite thing about adult entertainment?

It's the community. This job has helped me open my eyes to the world, who people really are. I've learned we can't judge people on such unimportant surface level things. Some of the people who are getting judged and ridiculed the most can be the nicest and best people to have around.

2. Do you have any fantasies that you would like to live out on camera?

A fantasy I'd like is an all-girl orgy, more specifically like a girl gangbang where a group of girls all team up to please me... a true dream!!!

3. What are you like off-camera? What do you do for fun?

I'm very quiet and reserved. I'm an introvert. I battle a lot with mental health and sobriety in my daily life as well. I'm over a year and a half sober and almost a year off medications. Not very sexy but it's a HUGE part of my life and I've accomplished so much in my mental health it's something I'm very proud of. I'm also a huge movie nerd. I spend a lot of my time bingeing movies and studying cinema. Oooh... and I also have been obsessed with HBO lately, watching their shows is for sure my definition of fun! One other thing I do for fun is art, specifically writing and photography—something I've enjoyed my entire life.

4. What makes you feel most alive?

Honestly, what makes me feel most alive is love—feeling it from friends, lovers, family. Truly such a lively feeling. And I'm blessed to have love from all those categories and people.

5. If you weren't in adult entertainment, what would you be doing right now?

If I wasn't in adult entertainment, I don't know if I'd be alive. This job has seriously saved my life. So that's a hard one.

6. What do you wish you knew more about?

History. My aunt and her family are huge history buffs, and I'm so jealous that every time I open my mouth, or we go somewhere, that they have a historical fact that they can pull out their back pockets.

7. What's something you find inspiring that would recommend to someone who needs inspiration?

What a deep, complicated question, I was mentally going over this topic yesterday. As a recovering addict, I used to find inspiration in drug use, and now that I'm sober, I always feel this creative discontent. So I had to go to the root of my problems... why was I getting high? And the answer was to numb the pain. Pain is the answer for me. Now that I'm sober, I have all this pain and trauma piled up, and it needs to be released. Art is the best way to release my pain. I channel all my emotions and use it to guide a creative outlet for myself. I discover myself more—connect with myself while creating something for the world. So my best tip would be to find inspiration in your fear, pain, etc... it seems almost impossible, but the outcome is priceless.

If you were going to get another tattoo what would it be and where would it be on your body? I plan on covering my entire body in tattoos. I'm currently working through a death's head hawkmoth chest piece... and it's spicy as heck!

Finish this sentence... Group sex is: Slippery.

Who motivates you whenever you're feeling down? I like to channel negative feelings into art. It's empowering to turn feelings of sadness into feelings of strength.

Favorite book, movie, and band: "From Here to Eternity" by Caitlin Doughty, "Swiss Army Man," and "Radiohead."

What's your favorite outfit or cosplay that you've done so far? Every Friday I do a live stream where I paint myself as a different character/animal/theme. Most recently, I painted myself as a fox, and before that, I was Lumpy Space Princess. Friday is my favorite day on cam because I can get lost in the joy of painting for hours! I think my fans enjoy it too.

What's on your bucket list? Have an army of dogs that follow me around everywhere I go, like a wolf pack. At least five. Also, I would love to win an award one day. I've been in the adult entertainment industry for over five years, and I feel ready and willing to put in the effort required to make this happen.

What's your personal definition of the word "sexy"? Understanding who you are, feeling at ease with it, and owning it.

Do you believe in luck? Not really, I'm more fatalistic.

What's the fastest way to turn you on? Grand displays of appreciation and lust. Deliberate, attentive kisses all over my body. Dry humping.

What's your secret talent? No. Gag. Reflex. Also, I can close my nostrils.

What is the first thing you notice about a person? How they treat the people around them.

Do you ever watch your own adult vids for sexual excitement? Not so much, I have too much of a critical eye when I watch my own vids. I'm always looking for new ways to improve my craft

Is there a fetish that you enjoy that you discovered through making vids? I do a lot of weird fetishes, I enjoy NBM (Natural Body Magic). I've discovered how much I LOVE being a headmistress from working with other producers and making my own stern, pretending to cane, solo vids.

What's the funniest thing that's ever happened to you while having sex? It was my first time messing around with this guy, and he had finally managed to remove my panties, and instead of licking my pussy he proceeded to stuff his face into me and shake his head around like a motorboat but without the raspberry. He was full on nose deep in my vagina and tongue just flat on my clit. I gave some polite moaning noises and tried to think of the best way to remove him without offending him.

What's one thing people would never know about you just by looking at you? That I do fetish modeling and wrestling sessions.

What is your favorite dessert, and why? I LOVE Crème Brûlée! However, I can no longer eat it as I can't eat dairy. I loved tapping on the sugary hardtop.

Would you rather go out or stay in on a Saturday night? I would rather stay in. I always think I'd like to go out dancing and get all sweaty in a night club, but then I remember I'm too old and tired to be bothering with the underage drunk idiots that might try and come chat me up. If I go out, I want to dance my heart out and snog a few girls.

What is your most useless skill? What's your most valuable? My most useless skill would be: Being able to make owl noises with my hands and whistles out of pieces of grass. My most valuable is: My talents for on-the-spot improvised acting. I've worked with a lot of producers, and there is NEVER a script, so the whole scene relies on me being able to spout sexy nonsense for about 10 minutes and carry the scene through to the end without stopping.

1. Can you describe the best date you've ever been on?

Someone once surprised me and took me on a private jet, and we flew to a private island. We had a delicious breakfast then we went hiking, jet skiing, and had massages. We finished the day with an amazing dinner while watching the sunset. We had so much fun and ended the night eating smores around a campfire while watching the stars. It was absolutely memorable!

> “
> Sex is a natural act & shouldn't be hidden or taboo.

2. Have things changed in adult entertainment since you started performing? Where do you hope things will progress?

I am new to the industry so I can't have as much perspective as someone else who has been here for a while. I would say that things are changing for the best—performers are fighting for better working conditions and are more united now that we can reach each other on different social media platform. This social media presence gives us more confidence and helps inform and educate people outside the industry on what it is really about. I am very positive about the future of sex work. People are more open to talk about their work, and hopefully one day sex work will be as normalized and accepted as any other form of entertainment.

3. What do you love about having sex on camera?

I never considered sexuality as something necessarily private or intimate—it's something that everyone can share and relate to. Sex is a natural act and shouldn't be something hidden or taboo. I love to do it on camera because it's a way to exponentially share pleasure without having to potentially risk your physical health or security. It's also a way to create a passive income from the different products you offer.

4. What makes you feel powerful?

I feel powerful when I have the freedom to do what I want to, when I want to, and how I want to. I have total control, so things are done on my own terms and within my boundaries. I feel powerful for having the freedom to work from anywhere in the world, for having a flexible schedule according to my needs. I feel powerful because now that I am exposed, I don't have anything to lose or have taken from me. The financial aspect of being financially independent at an early age and not having to work for money but to work because you want to is definitely another powerful aspect.

5. Who makes you feel the most supported?

Now that I've come out as a sex worker, I see who is supportive to me or not. It was a very revealing process when you see who stands by your side and defends you, and who decides to leave because they don't want to be associated with the industry. I am very selective about who is close to me; I choose only the people who want the best for me and support my choices, which are people who defend me and worry about my safety and happiness. It can be strangers, friends, or family and everyone in between.

6. What are some things about you your fans don't know?

What a good question! Even though my stage name was Spicy Nelly, I am not able to eat spicy food!

7. What's the difference between someone who is just good at adult entertainment and someone who is GREAT at it?

I think my following answer is also valid for any other industry. Everyone chooses this path for different reasons and there is no one reason more valuable than another. I do think that the people who distinguish themselves are the people who work with passion, and who are trying to give the best of themselves at any time.

8. If you could travel into the future to find out the answer to one question, what would you want to know?

I would like to know when I will die, to make sure I can do everything I want to before it happens!!

CONCRETE BLONDE

FEATURING

1. Do you have any hidden talents?

I'm very good at rollerblading!

2. What's your must-have fashion accessory?

A beanie, anytime, no matter the weather.

3. What's the fastest way someone can get you off?

If someone is fingering me with like two or three fingers while also licking or rubbing my clit at the same time, it really gets me going. If they're really talented, they could choke me too and then it's game over.

4. Is there a question you wish people would stop asking you?

I wish people would stop asking about family and whether they're aware of my job or if they approve. People don't ask cashiers or construction workers "Do your parents know what you're doing?" or "Are your parents proud of you?" Those are weird things to ask someone in every other profession, but it's super common to constantly ask adult performers that. It's just weird; please stop.

5. Is there a question you've always wanted to be asked?

There's nothing I haven't been asked. After three years in the industry, you get asked just about anything you could think of, even a couple marriage proposals. However, I would like to be asked if I want to take an all-expense-paid trip around the world, that would be amazing. Oh, and of course the answer would be yes!

6. Are you a home-body or a party girl?

I'm 100% a home-body, but if you get a dope ass group of girls together, I'm down to go out and see what we can get into.

7. What's a strange thing you find attractive?

I find cleanliness and organization super attractive, and I don't just mean like the dude showered or whatever, I'm talking about their surroundings, the living space, car, etc. Makes me feel good to see they're responsible and tidy.

7. How can we change the adult industry for the better?

I think we can change the adult industry for the better by offering more physical and mental health assistance to those who need it in a safe and judgment-free environment.
